EXPECT MEETING OF GREAT RACERS

Sysonby and Artful, Leaders of Turf, to Run in Annual Champion Saturday.

SEASON GREATEST YET

More High Class Horses Started This Year Than Ever Before.

Before. M

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, September 3.—There is no doubt that the season, which opened at Sheepshead Bay a week ago yesterday with the rich Futurity, will be the greatest in the history of metropolitan racing.

Never have there been so many high-class horses started at such large fields entered for the overnight events; never have there been such crowds at the tracks, and never has there been so much betting. Fully 40,000 people saw the Futurity run, and some days this week as many as 300,000 have furnished the bettors an opportunity to back their choices.

From now on until the close of the season on the big tracks, at Belmont Park, the fields, that will be evidently undoubtedly be the heaviest ever known. It is also a notable fact that in no past year have the rich stakes for the fall meetings at Sheepshead Bay, Brighton, Gravesend and Belmont Park been so liberally patronized, not only by Eastern owners but by prominent horsemen from both Western and Northern racing circuits.

The event of the present meeting, outside the Futurity, will be the meeting of Sysonby and Artful, admittedly the leaders of the three-year-old division, in the Annual Champion on Saturday to-day. These two great horses will then measure lances for the first time, and they should make a race worth going miles to see. It will be the culmination of the Keene-Whitney turf rivalry which Harry Payne Whitney inherited from his father, and which he evidently intends to keep up. Mr. Keene is confident that in Sysonby he has the greatest horse now in training. He is not by any manner of means alone in this opinion, and is justified by the fact that Sysonby has taken the measure of all the good ones he has met this year with ridiculous ease. Artful beat Sysonby in last year's Futurity, and there is a good deal of Whitney money which says he will repeat the dose when they get together next week. Time will show.

Sysonby, according to generally believed stories, has the distinction not only of being by far the greatest money earner of the season, but of having twice been the object of unlimited offers for purchase. It is related that John Drake offered Mr. Keene a blank check to be filled at his pleasure after Sysonby won last year's Saratoga Special, for the colt. Now it is said that John W. Drake made a similar tender at the recent Saratoga meeting. In both instances the checks were returned still blank. Sysonby is not for sale.

Sysonby's great winnings on the American turf up to date are as follows:

TWO-YEAR-OLD, 1904.
Brighton Beach, Overnight Sweepstakes.....$ 850
Brighton Beach, Brighton Junior.....12,000
Saratoga, Special.....15,000
Saratoga, Special.....2,553

Gravesend, Junior Champion.....2,000

THREE-YEAR-OLD, 1905.

Coney Island, Commonwealth.....12,000
Coney Island, Realization.....17,500
Brighton, Troquois.....6,000
Brighton, Derby.....12,000
Saratoga, Great Republic.....45,000
Coney Island, Century.....15,000

Total gross earnings two years, $101,853
Total gross earnings of J. R. Keene's Domino, three years, 190,580
GREATEST WINNERS IN ENGLAND.
Islington, three years.....$37,275
Flying Fox, two years.....200,000

The race meet scheduled for Providence, R. I., on September 9th, has been abandoned.

A New York coroner the other day made some very strong observations on the necessity for preserving the thoroughfares for their legitimate uses, and protecting passengers from the risks they run in avoiding children who ought not to be allowed to play there. He contended that the carelessness of parents, and the knowledge from his own experience that children deliberately tried to cross as near as they could in front of bicyclists and motor cars.

Legislation seems to be all in the direction of protecting people in parks and similar places from bicyclists and motorists, but no steps are taken to protect drivers and riders from the children playing in the streets and roads.

A report comes from Buffalo that Webb Jay has taken a turn for the better and that his recovery is hoped for.

It is said that all the show space on the main floor of Madison Square Garden, New York, has already been contracted for for the exposition of the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers next January.

The race meet scheduled for Providence, R. I., on September 9th, has been abandoned.

Manager Bradley asserts that Richmond will have the largest and most complete athletic field in the South.

The game will be played on the Saturday of Horse Show week, and Manager Thomas Bryan, of the University of Virginia, will endeavor to get the managers of the Horse Show hold the matinee on Friday, instead of Saturday, so that every one will be able to see the game, as well as the show at the Auditorium.
